CELEBRATE THE SPIRITUAL LEGACY OF CHURCHES OF THE HALLELUJAH TRAIL IN UNION COUNTY

PAUSE... REFLECT...REMEMBER

The Union County, Mississippi Hallelujah Trail includes 58 churches 100 years or older. They still hold services, many on their original sites and invite you to worship with them at their scheduled times.

This project has been undertaken by the Union County Historical Society in New Albany as a part of the celebration of the Bicentennial of the State of Mississippi, with the principle that church life has been and continues to be monumentally influential upon the people and culture of Union County, located in the heart of the Mississippi hills. We hope that you will take the opportunity to learn more about these historic churches and the rich spiritual heritage and fortitude of the people and visit them when you are in Union County. The trail winds through the town of New Albany, county seat of Union County and through the hills and hollers of the rural landscape.

This projects is supported by a grant by the
